

PARTNER WITH NCPP

THE NATION'S FIRST-EVER PROFESSIONAL CREDENTIAL FOR PATENT PRACTITIONERS IS HERE.

What is the Certified Patent Professional (CPP) Credential?

The CPP distinguishes those who have demonstrated knowledge and proficiency of patent claims drafting and prosecution according to the guidelines of the USPTO.

BECOME A CPP-COMPLIANT LAW FIRM

A special invitation to law firms to waive-in qualified patent practitioners for the CPP credential.

Waive-in Qualifications

- Good standing with the U.S. Patent Bar
- Minimum 5 years of law firm practice or in-house counsel with the primary role of overseeing patent -related matters
- Drafted 50+ patent applications
- Drafted 50+ office action responses

CPP Compliant Law Firms Have Waived in 70% or more of their Patent Prosecution Practitioners

CPP Compliant Law Firm Benefits*

- Professional development that allows your practitioners to obtain free online patent specific CLEs
- Improved recruitment of trained patent practitioners
- Marketing exposure and opportunities as a top-tiered Certified Patent Practitioner law firm
- Access to our CPP Exam Applicant database for hiring and recruitment purposes
- Discounted placement fees
- Recognition on our website and at our annual conference in front of corporate sponsors
- 3 complimentary CPP Qualifying Exam seats ($1,497 value) for Patent Agents/Attorneys with < 5 years of experience
- Eligibility for CPP⁺ Diversity Champion designation

